- b. Customer Instructions. Customer instructs Huntress to Process Personal Data only for the Purposes. Customer shall ensure its Processing instructions are lawful and that the Processing of Customer Personal Data in accordance with such instructions will not violate Applicable Data Protection Laws. This DPA and the Agreement are a complete expression of such instructions, and Customer's additional instructions will be binding on Huntress only pursuant to an amendment to this DPA signed by both parties. Where applicable, Customer shall be responsible for any communications, notifications, assistance and/or authorizations that may be required in connection with a Third-Party Controller.
- c. Customer Obligations. Without limitation of Customer's obligations under the Agreement, Customer (a) agrees that Customer is solely responsible for its use of the Services, including (1) making appropriate use of the Services to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk in respect of the Personal Data, (2) securing the account authentication credentials, systems and devices Customer uses to access the Services, (3) securing Customer's systems and devices that Huntress uses to provide the Services, and (4) backing up Personal Data; (b) shall comply with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws; and (c) shall ensure (and is solely responsible for ensuring) that its instructions in Section 3 comply with Applicable Data Protection Laws, and that Customer has given all notices to, and has obtained all such consents, permissions, and/or rights from, individuals to whom Personal Data pertains and all other parties as required by Applicable Data Protection Laws for Huntress to Process Personal Data for the Purposes.
- d. Prohibited Data. Customer represents and warrants to Huntress that Personal Data does not and will not, without Huntress's prior written consent, contain any social security numbers or other government-issued identification numbers, protected health information subject to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA") or other information regarding an individual's medical history, mental or physical condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis by a healthcare professional; health insurance information; biometric information; passwords for online accounts; credentials to any financial accounts; tax return data; credit reports or consumer reports; any payment card information subject to the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard; information subject to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act or the regulations promulgated under either such law; information subject to restrictions under Applicable Data Protection Laws governing Personal Data of children, including, without limitation, all information about children under 16 years of age; or any information that falls within any sensitive or special categories of data (as defined in Applicable Data Protection Laws).

4. Security and Security Audits

- a. Huntress Security Measures. Huntress will implement and maintain administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect the security and integrity of Personal Data and prevent Information Security Incidents, which shall at a minimum include the measures in its Security Addendum available at www.huntress.com/legal ("Security Addendum") and any other measures required by Applicable Data Protection Laws. Huntress may update the Security Addendum from time to time, so long as the updated measures do not materially decrease the overall protection of Personal Data.
- b. Information Security Incidents. Huntress will notify Customer without undue delay of any Information Security Incident of which Huntress becomes aware. In so doing, Huntress will provide Customer with sufficient details to allow it to meet any obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws. Such notifications will describe available details of the Information Security Incident, including steps taken to mitigate the potential risks and steps Huntress recommends the Customer take to address the Information Security Incident. Huntress shall cooperate, and require any Subprocessor to cooperate, with Customer in the investigation, mitigation, and remediation of any Information Security Incident. Huntress's notification of or response to an Information Security Incident will not be construed as Huntress's acknowledgement of any fault or liability with respect to the Information Security Incident.
- c. Reviews and Audits of Compliance. If required under an Applicable Data Protection Law, Customer may audit Huntress's compliance with its obligations under this DPA up to once per year and on such other occasions as may be required by Applicable Data Protection Laws, including if mandated by Customer's supervisory authority. Huntress will contribute to such audits by providing Customer or Customer's supervisory authority with the information and assistance reasonably necessary to conduct the audit.
 - i. Audit Process. To request an audit, Customer must send a written request for an audit of Huntress's applicable controls. Following receipt by Huntress of such a request, Huntress and Customer shall mutually agree in advance on the details of the audit, including the reasonable start date, scope and duration of, and security and confidentiality controls applicable to, any such audit. Any audits are at Customer's sole expense. Customer shall reimburse Huntress for any time expended by Huntress and any third parties in connection with any audits or inspections under this paragraph at Huntress's then-current professional services rates, which shall be made available to Customer upon request. The reports, audit, results, and any information arising therefrom shall be considered Huntress's Confidential Information and shall be provided to Huntress and may only be shared with a third-party (including a Third-Party Controller) with Huntress's prior written agreement.

- ii. Third-Party Auditor. If a third party is to conduct the audit, Huntress may object to the auditor if the auditor is, in Huntress's reasonable opinion, not independent, a competitor of Huntress, or otherwise not suitably qualified. Such objection by Huntress will require the Customer to appoint another auditor or conduct the audit itself. Any third-party auditor must sign a mutually agreeable non-disclosure agreement providing for the confidential treatment of all information exchanged in connection with the audit and any reports regarding the results or findings thereof. Customer will be responsible for any fees charged by any auditor appointed by Customer to execute any such audit.
- iii. Security Report. If the controls or measures to be assessed in the requested audit are addressed in a SOC 2 Type 2, ISO, NIST or similar audit report performed by a qualified third party auditor within twelve (12) months of Customer's audit request and Huntress has confirmed there have been no known material changes in the controls audited since the date of such report, Customer agrees to accept such report in lieu of requesting an audit of such controls or measures.
- d. Impact Assessments and Consultations. Huntress shall provide reasonably requested information regarding the Services to enable Customer to carry out data protection impact assessments or prior consultations with data protection authorities as required by Applicable Data Protection Laws, so long as Customer does not otherwise have access to the relevant information.

5. Data Subject Rights

- a. Customer's Responsibility for Data Subject Requests. Huntress shall promptly notify Customer if Huntress receives a request from a Data Subject that identifies Customer Personal Data or otherwise identifies Customer, including where the Data Subject seeks to exercise any of its rights under Applicable Data Protection Laws ("Data Subject Requests"). If Huntress receives a Data Subject Request, Huntress will advise the Data Subject to submit the request to Customer and Customer will be responsible for responding to the request.
- b. Data Subject Request Assistance. Huntress will (taking into account the nature of the Processing of Personal Data) provide Customer with assistance reasonably necessary for Customer to perform its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws to fulfill requests by Data Subjects to exercise their rights under Applicable Data Protection Laws with respect to Personal Data in Huntress's possession or control. Customer shall compensate Huntress for any such assistance at Huntress's then-current professional services rates, which shall be made available to Customer upon request.

- c. Government & Law Enforcement Inquiries. If Huntress receives a demand to retain, disclose, or otherwise Process Customer Personal Data from law enforcement or any other government and/or public authority ("Third-Party Demand"), then Huntress shall attempt to redirect the Third-Party Demand to Customer. Customer agrees that Huntress can provide information to such third-party to the extent reasonably necessary to redirect the Third-Party Demand to Customer. If Huntress cannot redirect the Third-Party Demand to Customer, then Huntress shall, to the extent legally permitted to do so, provide Customer reasonable notice of the Third-Party Demand as promptly as feasible under the circumstances to allow Customer to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy. This paragraph does not diminish Huntress's obligations under any Applicable Data Protection Laws with respect to access by public authorities.

- a. Definitions. For the purposes of this section and Schedule 1 these terms shall be defined as follows:
 - i. "EU C-to-P Transfer Clauses" means Standard Contractual Clauses sections I, II, III and IV (as applicable) to the extent they reference Module Two (Controller-to-Processor).
 - ii. "EU P-to-P Transfer Clauses" means Standard Contractual Clauses sections I, II III and IV (as applicable) to the extent they reference Module Three (Processor-to-Processor).
- b. Applicability. Huntress will Process Personal Data in accordance with the UK and European Data Protection Laws requirements directly applicable to Huntress's provision of its Services.
- c. Customer Instructions. Huntress shall inform Customer immediately (i) if, in its opinion, an instruction from Customer constitutes a breach of the UK and European Data Protection Laws and/or (ii) if Huntress is unable to follow Customer's instructions for the Processing of Personal Data.
- d. Transfer mechanisms for data transfers. If, in the performance of the Services, Personal Data that is subject to the UK and European Data Protection Laws or any other law relating to the protection or privacy of individuals that applies in Europe is transferred out of Europe to countries which do not ensure an adequate level of data protection within the meaning of the UK and European Data Protection Laws, the transfer mechanisms listed below shall apply to such transfers and can be directly enforced by the Parties to the extent such transfers are subject to the UK and European Data Protection Laws:

- e. The EU C-to-P Transfer Clauses. Where Customer and/or its Affiliate is a Controller and a data exporter of Personal Data and Huntress is a Processor and data importer in respect of that Personal Data, then the parties shall comply with the EU C-to-P Transfer Clauses, subject to the additional terms in Schedule 1; and/or
- f. The EU P-to-P Transfer Clauses. Where Customer and/or its Affiliate is a Processor acting on behalf of a Controller and a data exporter of Personal Data and Huntress is a Processor and data importer in respect of that Personal Data, the parties shall comply with the terms of the EU P-to-P Transfer Clauses, subject to the additional terms in Schedule 1.
- g. Impact of local laws. As of the Effective Date, Huntress has no reason to believe that the laws and practices in any third country of destination applicable to its Processing of the Personal Data as set forth herein, including as set forth in Section 7, prevent Huntress from fulfilling its obligations under this DPA. If Huntress reasonably believes that any existing or future enacted or enforceable laws and practices in the third country of destination applicable to its Processing of the Personal Data (“Local Laws”) prevent it from fulfilling its obligations under this DPA, it shall promptly notify Customer. In such a case, Huntress shall use reasonable efforts to make available to the affected Customer a change in the Services or recommend a commercially reasonable change to Customer’s configuration or use of the Services to facilitate compliance with the Local Laws without unreasonably burdening Customer. If Huntress is unable to make available such change promptly, Customer may terminate the applicable Agreement(s) and suspend the transfer of Personal Data in respect only to those Services which cannot be provided by Huntress in accordance with the Local Laws by providing written notice.

7. Subprocessors

- a. Consent to Subprocessor Engagement. Customer specifically authorizes the engagement of Huntress’s Affiliates as Subprocessors and generally authorizes the engagement of other third parties as Subprocessors.

- c. Requirements for Subprocessor Engagement. When engaging any Subprocessor, Huntress will enter into a written contract with such Subprocessor containing data protection obligations not less protective than those in this DPA with respect to Personal Data to the extent applicable to the nature of the services provided by such

Columbia, MD 21046

Subprocessor. Huntress shall be liable for all obligations under the Agreement subcontracted to the Subprocessor or its actions and omissions related thereto.

- d. Opportunity to Object to Subprocessor Changes. When Huntress engages any new Third Party Subprocessor after the Effective Date of the Agreement, Huntress will notify Customer of the engagement (including the name and location of the relevant Subprocessor and the activities it will perform) by updating the Subprocessor List or by other written means. Customer can monitor the Subprocessor List or subscribe to follow updates to the Subprocessor List to receive notifications of any updates to the Subprocessors. If Customer objects to such engagement in a written notice to Huntress within 15 days after being informed of the engagement on reasonable grounds relating to the protection of Personal Data, Customer and Huntress will work together in good faith to find a mutually acceptable resolution to address such objection. If it can be reasonably demonstrated to Huntress that the new Subprocessor is unable to Process Customer Personal Data in compliance with the terms of this DPA and Huntress cannot provide an alternative Subprocessor, or the Parties are not otherwise able to achieve resolution as provided in the preceding sentence, Customer, as its sole and exclusive remedy, may terminate the Agreement with respect to only those aspects which cannot be provided by Huntress without the use of the new Subprocessor by providing advance written notice to Huntress of such termination and pay Huntress for all amounts due and owing under the Agreement as of the date of such termination.

8. Miscellaneous

- a. The Parties agree that this DPA shall replace and supersede any existing data processing addendum, attachment, exhibit or standard contractual clauses that Huntress and Customer may have previously entered into in connection with the Service. Huntress may update this DPA from time to time, with such updated version posted to www.huntress.com/legal, or a successor website designated by Huntress; provided, however, that no such update shall materially diminish the privacy or security of Customer Personal Data.
- b. Except as expressly modified by the DPA, the terms of the Agreement remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this DPA and the other terms of the Agreement, this DPA will govern. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement or any order form entered in connection therewith to the contrary, the parties acknowledge and agree that Huntress's access to Personal Data does not constitute part of the consideration exchanged by the parties in respect of the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, any notices required or permitted to be given by Huntress to Customer under this DPA may be given (a) in accordance with any notice clause of the Agreement; (b) to Huntress's primary points of contact with Customer; or (c) to any email provided by Customer for the
